As a boy, young Robinson was forever eager to go to sea, and when he disobeys his parents and first sets sail so begins his extraordinary life of adventures. Shipwreck, pirates, slavery and adversity all await him in this classic story of one man's struggle to endure and survive. One of the first novels written in English, Defoe's unforgettable tale is justifiably among the most widely published books ever written. Other titles available in this series: TREASURE ISLAND KING SOLOMON'S MINES THE ADVENTURES OF TOM SAWYER THE SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON THE CALL OF THE WILD THE ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD
